

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

ICF Iceland

© ICF Iceland

Based on the standard articles of association for national chapters

Version 1.2

1. NAME AND REGISTERED OFFICE OF ASSOCIATION

1.1 The name of the association is ICF Iceland (hereinafter named "ICF Iceland").

1.2 The registered office of the association is the municipality of Reykjavík.

2. PURPOSE AND MISSION

2.1 ICF Iceland is the Icelandic head office (a so-called "chapter") of International Coach Federation (ICF) (hereinafter named "ICF Global").³

2.2 The purpose of ICF Iceland is to maintain and develop coaching as an independent profession in Iceland.

2.3 It is ICF Iceland's mission together with ICF Global to function as a national forum for research and development within the coaching industry, to inspire change through dialogue, to support professional development at a high level, and to increase attention and understanding of the contribution that coaching offers the development and future of humanity.

2.4 ICF Iceland can cooperate with other organizations in accordance with the guidelines that have been determined by ICF Global.

2.5 ICF Iceland may not assume any political or religious viewpoints.

2.6 The work methods employed by ICF Iceland, its members and groups must comply with the values of ICF Global and should at all times be in accordance with the guidelines and provisions in force as determined by ICF Global.

2.7 ICF Iceland is a non-profit organisation. ICF Iceland is to be registered in the register of associations at the Icelandic Commerce and Companies Agency in Reykjavík.

3. MEMBERSHIP

3.1 Any person (a) who is a member of ICF Global and (b) has accepted the membership of ICF Iceland can be admitted as a member.

3.2. Any person who wish to become a member of FMÍ (FMÍ is a subchapter of ICF Iceland) has finished at least 60 hours of coaching education prior to submitting a request to become member. Member of FMÍ pays membership fee and by doing so agrees to follow the ethical guidelines of ICF. Membership benefits is decided by the board but has to be in accordance with ICF rules for membership at all times.

3.3 A member may be excluded by ICF Iceland if the person in question acts against the purpose, guidelines and rules of the organization in a way that may harm the credit of ICF Iceland. The decision to exclude a person is made by the board and the member in question is notified in writing.

